PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1888.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LABOR'S DAY.

Enthusiastically Celebrated by a Big Parade.

Thousands of New York's Stalwart Workers in Line,

Reviewed in Union Square by Their Wives and Sweethearts.

Hundreds of Trades Represented.

Bright Phoebus smiled blandly and brightly upon Labor's hosts to-day. In perfect sympathy with the men who earn their living by the sweat of their brows, he shed his rays gently upon them.

It was a bright, beautiful day, and just a comfortable one for the paraders. There are 300 organizations in the Central Labor Union and 150,000 men form the membership of these organizations. They were all out to-day, dressed in their best and escorted by their wives, sisters, sweethearts and daughters.

The girls were the prettiest and brightest of New York's famous handsome women, and everybody was happy.

To insure that every member of the several trades and labor organizations should furn trades and labor organizations should 'turn out to-day; should lay aside the hammer, composing stick or other weapon of labor, most of them provided that any member who should work on Labor Day should pay a fine more than equal to the sum he might earn by the day's work.

And so there were few workers in New York and Brooklyn to-day.

The celebration of the State's holiday to Labor was to melude a grand parade in the morating and a picnic at Phonix Park, One Hundred and Forty-eighth street and the continuation of Second avenue, in the afternoon.

noon.

The rendezvous of the paraders was in Thirteenth street at Second avenue, and as early as 8.30 this morning crowds began to gather there.

GRAND MARSHAL SULLIVAN. Of course the fakirs were early on the ground, and a number offmon-union peddlers of bamboo canes, candies, fruits and fans soon found that it was no harvest for them. They were spotted by a committee who examined them as to their standing, and were almost completely boycotted by the sons and daughters of organized Labor.

PAINTERS FIRST ON HAND

The first organization to appear at the rendezvous was the Deutsch Painters' Verein, with Mr. Weike as Marshai of the union. They were 600 strong and followed a magnicent red banner.

It was about 11 o'clock when Grand Marshal Sullivan gave the word, and the procession started on the line of march, which was down Second avenue, through Stuyvesant place and Astor place, Broadway, Fourteanth street, Fourth avenue, and by the reviewing stand at the Union Square plaza, Seventeenth street, where about one hundred of the wives and sweethearts of the paraders were to review them. Thence the parade passed to Fifth avenue and on up to Thirty-fourth street, where the grand marshal and his aides were to review and diamies them.

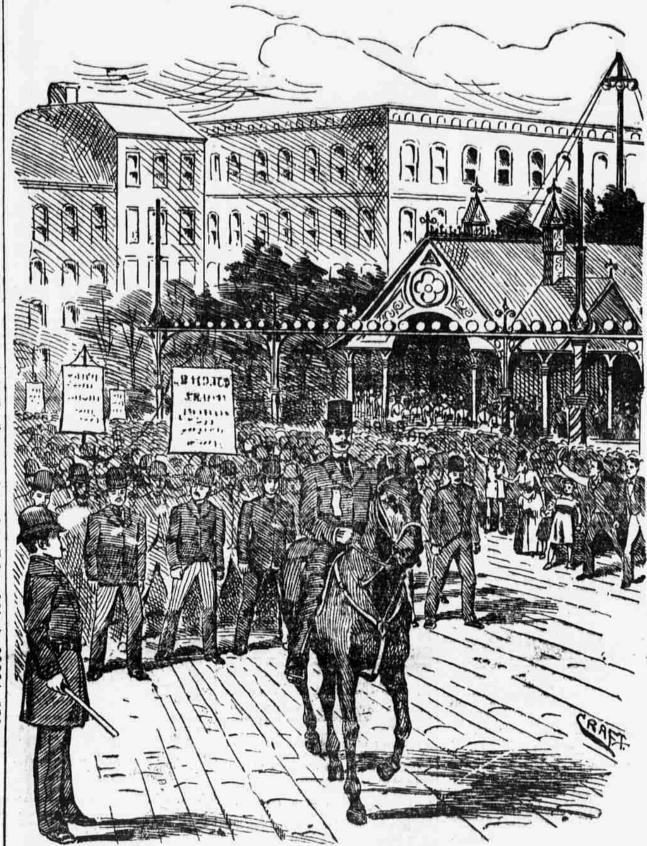

them.

Jeremiah F. Sullivan was the embodiment of martial manhood as he sat his big brown horse. He were a black diagonal suit of clothing and a military soft hat. A beautiful baldric of red, white and blue silk passed from his shoulder to his thigh and was knotted and bordered with gold embroidery. A badge of blue with a heavy gold rosette adorned his breast. It was inscribed:

GRAND MARSHAL CENTRAL LABOR UNION, 1886.

AT THE CRAND STAND IN UNION SQUARE.

The Head of Labor's Great Procession Passes the Cottage so Gallantly Reserved for the Ladies.

Second avenue; food producers, Eleventh street, west of Second avenue; invited guests, Eleventh street, east of Second avenue; metal trades. Tenth street, west of Second avenue; furniture trades, Tenth street, east of Second avenue; miscellaneous trades, Ninth street, right resting on Stuyvesant place.

As each section swung into line it was greeted with applause by its friends who thronged on the sidewalks.

There were probably 150,000 men and women on the streets along the line of march, and every position of vantage was occupied. Small boys found splendid accommodations on the tops of the dismantled lamp posts in places where the electric light has been introduced.

Tee lads usually sat inside the frames where once the jets and globes were.

MANY TRADES ILLUSTRATED. Many of the unions bore with them devices illustrative of their trades. Among these most noticeable were the designs of the STONE-CUTTERS ON WHEELS.

The Granite Stone-Cutters' Union, marshalled by William Schelor, had one of Brown, McAllister & Co.'s big trucks. drawn by six black horses, decked in flags. In the truck was one of the monuments designed for graves of soldiers of the gallant Sixty-ninth Regiment at Riverhead, and were at work with mallet and chisel on big blocks of the mottled stone.

His aides were Chief Matthew Barr, of the Tin and Sheet-Iron Workers, and Thomas F. Connolly, of the Oystermen's Union. Section Aides—Building trades, Dennis Walsh tobacco section. F. Riebetanz: printing trades, M. A. O'Brien: food producers, W. Hintze: invited organizations, Simon Gompers; furniture trades, C. Wadenscheck; miscellaneous trades, James O'Gara.

Preceding the procession was Roundaman Wavle, of the Seventeenth Precinct, with an escort of ten policemen, mounted Inspector Williams overlooked the affair, with an aide ha Sergt. Price.

The several sections joined the line in turn from their respective rendezvons as follows: Building trades. Thirteenth street, west of Second avenue; tobacco trades, Thirteenth street, and Chisel on big blocks of the mottled stone.

The monument is a life-sizellstatue of a soldier in uniform, H. B. Claffin Post Drum Corps beat time for the granite workers.

The Progressive Painters' Union No. 6, of which President John Moran was Marshal, presented a fine appearance, with its 140 men, as did the United Brotherhood of Progressive Painters—Ed Conklin, Marshal.

Each of the sections had a marshal. They were James McKim, G. Weinstein, W. Frohmuller, Smon Gompers, C. Wodencheck and James O'Garur.

The "Official Journal of the Central Labor Union's Celebration of Labor Day was distributed from a wazon by a committee. It was a handsomely gotten up pamphlet of seventy-five pages and contained articles by J. N. Boger's Gideon J. Tucker, Gregory Wintern William T. Oroasdale, Col. Ingersoll and others.

Not the least interesting of these was an article about the American Federation of Labor by Samuel Gompers, its President.

Samuel Gompers is one of the brightest and ablest leaders of organized labor in America.

Thirty thousand copies of this Journa', which is edited by David Naughton, were distributed free. He wrote on Labor's problem. Edward Finkelstone Edward Finkelsione, another of the editors of the Journal, is leader of the Barber's Union.

One of the pretty things in the line to-day was a mammoth shoe, from the top of which could be seen the head of an old woman and a number of "kids." The shoe was followed by the employees of a shoe manufacturer.

THE PRINTING TRADES SECTION.

Marshal Gregory Weinstein's section, consisting of the Printing Trades Section, was composed of German, Bohemian and Hebrew unions, and made a good turnout.

Simon Gompers was Marshal of the section composed of invited guests. Among these was Typographical Union No. 6, under whose banner marched The World chapel and chapels from nearly all the other newspapers; the custom tailors, Shoe-Workers' Protective League and trucks filled with Brooklyn men.

The employees of a well-known trunk maker were preceded by a truck from which were displayed several transparencies bear-THE PRINTING TRADES SECTION.

Marshal of the Housesmith's Union, rode a Government mule 'U.S." brand. There were 250 men from this union, of which Mr. Rice is now President.

The Slate and Metal Roofers turned out 600 roofers and 400 cornice-makers, under Marshal Patrick Cassidy.

The Housesmiths, who had the head of the line, had a banner inscribed:

"We Help the Oppressed."

They were a fine body of men.
Reliance Labor Club of Marble Cutters was marshalled by Charles Rogers and marched to the music of Judson Kilpatrick
Post Drug Corne Post Drum Corps.

Post Drum Corps,

KING GAMBBINUS ON HAND.

The Brewers' Section made a remarkable display. Among the devices in this section was a wheeled chariot in which King Gambrinus, in purple and fine linen, quaffed the health of the throngs from a monster mug of foaming beer, while the members of his court joined him in his conviviality.

Three hundred members of the Waiters' Union marched under Marshal Albert Boehm. Urania Labor Club, Magnolia No. 1, the Bartenders' Union, Aurora and Hotel Waiters No. 1 were represented in this section.

tion.

John J. Finn marshalled Typographical

The Worker chapel and chapels from nearly all the other newspapers; the ountous filled with Brooklyn mea. The majores of a well-known trunk maker were preceded by a truck from which were displayed several transparencies bearing sentiments of various corts.

Twenty men in suits of white canvas rode in a truck bearing banners saying that they were employees of a firm of decorators.

The Theatrical Protective Union of stage carpenters and stage hands presented a pretty appearance. The employees of the Windsor, Oriental, Harrigan's and Broadway theatres, Henderson's New Academy of Music, Jersey City; Kiralfy's "Nero" and the Grand Opera-House made up this union's representation, each bearing neat banners and designs.

The Grand Opera-House made up this union's representation, each bearing neat banners and designs.

The Grand Opera-House made up this union's representation, each bearing neat banners and designs.

The Grand Opera-House made up this union's representation, each bearing neat banners and designs.

The House of the control of the con of the organizations being permitted by the Central Labor Union.

One hour and twenty-five minutes was consumed by the parade in passing Cooper consumed by the parade in passing Cooper Union.

The members of the Central Labor Union committees, including James P. Archibald, G. P. H. McVey, Widiam Shakespeare and Edward Finkelstone, rode in carriages very near the head of the line.

Dan Jacobs and Lewis Delaire committee in charge of the prizes offered for competition in the athletic games at Phenix Park this afternoon, occupied a carriage from which the prizes were displayed.

There were three women on foot in the line of march.

of march.

Excelsior Labor Club provided five carriages in which a number of female members rode, and there were a number of carriages filled with ladies.

The Slate and Metal Workers made a splendid showing. They marched eight abreast, and there were 900 of them.

There were 1,400 Houseamiths, who stepped to the music of the Sixty-ninth Regiment Band.

Band.
The Hexagon Club turned out 300 men.
Four horses drew a truck, in which was building material and thirty men in blue jumpers and white hats.

AT THE REVIEWING STAND.

The reviewing stand at the cottage on Union Square was packed with ladies who came on the invitation of the committee. Young and old, the wives, mothers and best girls of the paraders and those fortunate ene ough to obtain the necessary invitation cam early and secured places from which they eagerly watched for the advance guard of the parade.

Each had the name of some one dear to them on their lips and speculated as to how Johnny or Jim would look.

PRETTY GIRLS WATCHING.

Many young and pretty women were among those who watched for the approach of the column.

It was after 11 o'clock when their patience was rewarded. The platoon of police heading the procession turned the corner. Immediately a hum arose and all looked eagerly in the direction from whence they were coming.

in the direction from whence they were coming.

Marshal Sullivan, sitting erect on his handsome steed and gracefully holding the rein, came prancing around the corner.

A hum arose again, "Oh, my, aint be nice looking?" said the girls in chorus while the mother and sister of the handsome marshal gazed at him with looks of pride.

The Marshal and his aides rode up, passed and made room for the other portion of the column, amid much applause and complimentary allusions.

Each section as it passed by the stand, the bands playing their sweetest and prettiest selections, came in for its share of applause.

The stand was in charge of Edward Conkilin and a committee, and no pne, with the exception of members of the press and ladies, were allowed on it.

Sergit Hugh Fitzpatrick, of the Park Police, and a squad of some fifteen men, saw to it that this rule was enforced, that no one who did not have an invitation was allowed.

SOME OF THOSE ON THE GRAND STAND.

Among those fortunate enough to possess one of these pasts boards and who reviewed the men were noticed:

one of these paste boards and who reviewed the men were noticed:

Miss Luzie Coukiuz, Mya. Kevelin, Mrs. John G. Jones. Minole Freckie, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Baits, Miss Mary Humes, Mrs. F. Mead, Mrs. Hay, Mas Harris, Mrs. Ernest Bohm, the wife of the Secretary of the tentral Labor Union; Mrs. S. Finkiestone, Mrs. B. Finkiestone, Miss M. C. Hawk, Miss E. Hawk, Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. S. Princiestone, Miss Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Ordelliy, Mrs. S. Conz, Miss Blosson Cuno, Mrs. Patrick Reynolds, Miss Armstrong, Miss P. Bipple, Mrs. M. Sullivau, Miss Dora Viener, Dr. Sarah Furnas Wells, Miss Annie Murphy, Miss Maggie Murphy, Miss Sara Finkiestone, Mrs. William H. Taylor, Mrs. Henry T. Driggs, Mes Ella Sullivau, the sisker of Grand Marchal Sullivau, Mrs. Annie Hastiggs, Mrs. Edwin risist, Mamie Birmingham, Mrs. Sarkey, Mrs. Houry Rice, Mrs. Margaret Elisatt, Mrs. Haylor, Mrs. Hichard Miller, Mrs. J. Brougher, Miss Brown, Annie Armstrong, Miss Lugile Saarkey, Mrs. J. G. Caville, Miss Ida Van Etten, President of the Working-women's Scolety; Miss May Gay Humpreys, Mrs. United Cleary, Mrs. Eugene Helly, Mrs. E. D. Collina, Mrs. R. P. Eugene Rielly, Mrs. R. D. Collins, Mrs. R. P. Davis, Mrs. Samuel Gompers, Miss Gompers. Others on the stand were Tom O'Reilly, the Master Workman of the Te'egraphers' Brotherhood, and Austin and Patrick Ford, who came in their capacity of reporters,

THE PARADE BREAKS UP.

It was just 11.30 when the top of the column headed by Marshal Sullivan and his sides reached Thirty-fourth street.

After a moment's halt, they drew their horses up and rested on the west side of Fifth avenue, on Thirty-fourth street.

In this position they reviewed the parade, and salutes were exchanged between the
Marshal and the presidents and walking delegates of the different unions.

The companies continued on up Fifth avenue, branching off into the side streets where the ranks were broken. It took one hour and fifty-five minutes for the procession to pass this point.

THE NUMBER OF PARADERS. The following table shows the number of paraders by a close estimate, Organizations.

Marstal and aldes
Marstal and alder
Carriages containing committees	*****
Carriage with prizes	*****
Housesmi as' Union. Slate and Metal Roofers	******
Slate and Metal Rooters,
Towns it is a fast targ	CARRIED TA
Haraman Labor Ciub
United Order American Carponici	s and
Talange	DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTY OF THE
Amalgamated Carpenters'
Characters Painters Union.
Decemenates Painters, 1, 3 and 6,	1.1
Carman Housepainters
Passes Painters.
Protective Unions	1
United Tin and Sneet Iron Workers
German Brickingers No. 11
the state of the box (1100)
Bearing and A. T. S.
Newspaper Printers	1010111
Newspaper Frances
Hebrew Typographical Union
Oystermen's Union
Confectioners and Cake-Bakers
Brewerym.n	******
Bear Drivers	ARRANAI -
Beet Dilacts	******
Mulatera.
Typographical Chica rice o
Malsers. Typographical Union No. 6 Horseshoere Stereotypers and Electrotypers Machinate.
Breteoribers and wicortorbers	******
Machinista
Furniture Workers
Varnishers	******
I nited Packing-Boz-Makers	******
Carriage and Wagon Makers	7555761
Up o terers	*****
United Plano-Makers	restant !
International Boatmen	1999114
Belgian Pavers	******
German Pavers	******
International Millwrights and Millors.	******
United Silk-Ribbon Weavers	*****
Manhattan Sewing-Machine Bairsmen	** / **
United Progressive Carpet-Workers	m7A
United Insurance League
Umbrella and Walking-Stick Makers
Excelator Labor Club
	-
Porel	90.1

15,000 PARADERS IN BOSTON. Boston, Sept. 3.—Fully 15.000 organized sons of labor participated in to-day's parade. Thousands of spectators througed the streets. The day was perfect. Elijab J. Morse. of the Executive Council, representing Gov. Ames, reviewed the procession from the State House, and Mayor O'Brien reviewed it from City Halt.

They Are But Liliputians to Jersey City's Ball Players.

Disastrous Experience With Co!ts Across North River.

Jersey City 8 New York

PERCIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. OAKLAND PARK, JERSEY CITY, Sept. 3.—More than five thousand people growded into Oakland Park this morning to witness the game between the home team and Manager Mutrie's Giants. They had every anticipation of seeing a goo game, although the men who are shead in the race for the pennant did not put forward their crack representatives. The two nines were as follows: JERSEY CITY.

Knowies, 3d b.
Hiland, e. f.
O'Brien, 1st b.
Friel, l. f.
Gerhardt, 2d b.
Corcoran, r. f.
Hofford, c. Tiernan, r. f.
Crane, s. s.
Connor, lat h.
Foster, c. f.
Gore, l. f.
Whitney, 3d o.
Hatfield, 2d b.
Murphy, c.
Titcomo, p. Umpire-Mr. Brady.

Umpire—Mr. Brady.

The Jerseymen took the lead at the start, while the Glants made rather a mortifying display of bad fielding and still worse batting. Inowies was the first to face the left-handed twirler from New York, and he hit safely.

Hillend followed with another good drive, and with the assistance of one or two errors and two sacrifice hits both scored amid the wildest demonstrations of approval on the part of the Jersey sympathizers.

It was evident that the Glants had some friends in the crowd, however, for when Tiernan came to the bat he was received with cheers, and one of his admirers in the grand-stand sent out a bouquet to him.

It was of no use, however, for he sawed the air in vain, and so did the two who followed him.

Goose eggs fell to the left of the Glants in each of the next two innings, and only twice did a bataman succeed in re-ching fiel.

Murphy and Titcomb were both presented with the next two innings, and only twice did a bataman succeed in re-ching first.

Murphy and Titcomb were both presented with bouquets when they had their first time at the bat. The Jerseymen hit Titcomb freely and in the third inning Hiland and O'Brien, who reached first on safe hits, accred on errors.

The Jerseys were bisnked in the first half of the fourth inning, Connow making a fine running caten of Knowles's foul fly. For the New Yorks, Foster made the first tally in the latter half of the fourth on a safe hit, followed by Lang's fumble of Gore's grounder.

or knowless louing. For the New Yorks, Foster made the first taily in the latter half of the fourth on a safe hit, followed by Lang's fumble of Gore's grounder.

The inning closed with a fine double play, Hiland taking in Whitney's long fly, and sending the ball home in time to catch Gore, who was trying to steal in from third.

In the fifth issing Hiland got his base on balls and scored on Friel's three-base drive to right field, while Friel came home on Gerhardi's sacrifice.

Daiy's delivery was as puzzling as ever, and the Giants again went out one, two, three order, Hatchel on strikes and surphy and Thicomb as first.

Craue went in to plich in the sixth liming, and the effect was immediately noticeable. The Jersey men went cut in regular order, after making frantic attempts to hit somewhere near the call.

There were load calls for Tiernan to make a hit when he faced Daix for the third time.

He did his best, but got is he ball up too high, and Gerhardt took it in great style. Connor was also urged to do somethins, but falled to respond.

In the seventh inning the Jersey City players got their work in again. After O'Brien had struck out Friel got his base on balls, and talled on Gerhard's ihree-bagger. The veteran himself scored on a passed ball by Murphy. Crane's wild pitching also gave Corcoran his base, and Hofford took his bise on Haffeld's famble. Neither scored, bowever.

The Giants were blanked again, the feature being a double play by Cercoran, who gobbled Waltney's dy and caught Gore napping at second.

Neither side scored in the eighth inning.

A one-hand earch of Gerhard's liner by Connor, who made a double play by putting the ball to Haffeld's famble. Neither scored house, scored on a wild throw by Daly to second base.

How the game went on after this is indicated by the following score:

How the game went on after this is indicated by

SCORE BY INNINGS. Jersey City...... 2 0 2 0 2 0 2 0 0 - 8 New York...... 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 - 2 Jersey City-Base hits, 8; errors, 2. New York-Base hits, 6; errors, 6.

follows:
Grand Marshal, Bernard T. Degnan; Assistant
Grand Marshal, William H. Wood; Alde-in-Chief,
James McKenzie; aides, Miles McPartiand, al. J.
Conily, George Strimer, Robert J. Ryan.
First Division-W. E. Hill, Marshal, United
Carpenters' Associations of Brooklyn; 9, Lathers'
Union No. 1; 10, Stonemasons' Union; 11, Tin Rooters.

Carpenters' Associations of Brooklyn', Labores' Union No. 1; 10, Stonemasons' Union; 11, Tin Mooiers.

Second Division—Bernard Rosenberg, Marshal. Typographical Union No. 98; 12, 14, 15, Cigarmakers' Unions Nos. 133, 144, 87; 16, Tescarora Labor Club; 17, Friemakers' Association; 13, Har Finishers' Association.

Third Division—John Rabbitt, Marshal. Bluestone Cutters' Association; 20, Granite Cutters' Association; 20, Granite Cutters' Association; 21, Brownstone Kutbers' Association; 20 to 20, Laborers' unions, Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Fourta Division—Thomas Rerwin, Marshal. Horseshoers' Association No. 7; 30, Horseshoers' Association No. 7; 30, Horseshoers' Association No. 7; 30, Horseshoers' Association No. 10; 30 to 41, Surface Railway Employees, In A. 75; 42, Beignan Pavers' Union; 43, Brookisyn Pavers' Union.

Fifth Division—H. Vitty, Marshal. 44, Painters' Union, No. 4; 45, Painters' Union, No. 2; 46, Boutevard Labor Club; 47, Plasterers' Union No. 1; 48, Fran ers' Union; 47, Plasterers' Union No. 2; 48, Bouters' Laborers; 21, Cartimen's Union No. 1, Nixth Division—John M. Lowe, Marshal. 52, sesociations; 50. Plumber.

men's Union No. 1.
Sixth Division—John M. Lowe, Marshal. 52,
Bakers' Advance Club; 55, Bakers' Allantic Club;
54, Bakers' Long Island Club; 55, Bakers' Union Bakers' Advance Club; 55, Bakers' Union No. 34.
Seventh Division.—Mathew Puerst, Marshal, 56, United Waiters' Association: 57, Carpenters' Union No. 18; 58, Painters' Union No. 8; 50, Furniture Worter's No. 8; 80, Bricklayers' Union No. 9; 61, Arbiter Macaner Chor; 64, Les Salle Manner Chor; 63, Tailors' Progressive Union; 64, Sugar-House Workers.

House Workers.

The line of march was from Lafayette avenue and Cumberland street to Bedford avenue, to Myrtle avenue, to Myrtle street, to Evergreen, to Myrtle avenue to Bidgewood Park and the Colosseum, There they disbanded and gave themselves up to enjoying the day. It is estimated that 10,000 men were in line.

PLAYED GOOD BALL

Brooklyn's Men Show St. Louis That They Can Do It.

A Morning Game Taken from the Association Leaders.

And That Despite a Home Run on the Other Side.

St. Louis . Brooklyn . ;

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, Sept. 2.—The St. Louis Browns came into the field to-day on a tally-ho coach, and the 7,000 people present rent the air with cheers of welcome. The attendance showed that a baseball game was almost a greater attraction than the Labor-Day parade, for 2,000 more had growded into the grounds when ' play'

Brooklyn was bound to present its best nine against the champions of muddy water and a great deal of care was taken in the selection. Burdock only got on to the card because of his wonderful base hit which won the game at Ridgewood yesterday, and he was given an opportunity to prove whether or not that was a plece of luck. These boys furnished the sport :

ST. LOUIS.

BROOKLYN. Pinkney, 3d b. Fingney, 3d 5.

Burns, a. B.

Fonus, r. f.

O'Brien, l. f.

Corr, ist b.

Badford, c. f.

L'Clark, c.

Burdock, 3d b.

Haghes, p.

Umpire—Mr. Goldsmith.

Latham, 3d th.
Robinson, 2d b.
O'Nettl, I. f.
Comiskey, 1st b.
McCarthy, r. f.
Lyons, c. f.
White, s. s.
Boyle, c.
Hudson, p. First Inning-Latham came jauntily to the plate only to fly out to Hadford. Robinson tipped to Clark. Tip O'Neill's easy bounder was juggled by Burns and the batter started on the base ctroult. Comiskey's single to centre advanced "Tip" to third. McCarthy filed to Burdock.

Pidkney put up an easy fly in short left which White muffed too handliy. Pinkney stole second, Boyle throwing low. Buras sacrificed on a grounder to Robinson and Pinkney went to third.
Foutz fouled to Comiskey. Robinson fumbled O'Brien's slow roller and then threw ten feet wild past first. Pinkney scored and O'Brien made the stream of the bases. Orr grounded to White. Two estrent of the bases. Off grantees white rubs.

Becond Inning—Lyons filed to Hughes. Watter struck out. Boyle got his base on balls. Hudson hit safely for a single in centre. Burns got his hands on but falled to pull down Latham's liner just over his head and Boyle scored. Five balls niled the bases, Robinson taking first, O'Neill filed the bases, Robinson taking first, O'Neill filed to Radford. One run.

Radford placed a safe single in left, but was caught attempting second. Clark struck out.

Radford placed a safe single in left, but was caught attempting second. Clark struck out. Burdock foul-tipped out.

Turd Inning—Flakinsy made a gorgeous satch of Comiskey's ity in left field. McCarthy failed to hit the ball. Lyons retired the side with a bounder to Barns.

Hughes rolled to Robinson. Finkey popped to Robinson. Burns filed to Lyons.

Fourth Inning—White fouled to Clark. Boyle struck out. Hadson, after two strikes had been called on him, put a nome run in left field fence corner. Latham popped to Burns. One run.

Fouts went, back to the bench on a slow roller to Latham. O'Brien struck out. O'r bounded to the box.

box.

Fifth Inning—Robinson bounded to Burus.

O'Neill found empty space where the ball ought to have been, and Comiskey filed to Radford.

Radford filed to Lyons. Clark bounded to White.

Burdoog filed to O'Neill. Jersey City—Base hits, 8; errors, 2.

New York—Base hits, 8; errors, 2.

New York—Base hits, 8; errors, 2.

New York—Base hits, 6; errors, 2.

New York—Base hits, 8; errors, 2.

New York—Base hits, 6; errors, 2.

New In Hanne—Carty put up a baby 9 for Hoghes Lyons of hits part alow bounder line Burder, Highes Lyons, Clark bounder in Plusher Highes And York Hudson, and got second on a wild pitch. Burder, Highes And York Hudson, and got second on a wild pitch. Burder, Highes And York Hudson, and got second on a wild pitch. Burder, Highes And York Hudson, and got second on a wild pitch. Burder, Highes And York Hudson, and got second on a wild pitch. Burder, Highes And York Hudson, and got second on a wild pitch. Burder, Highes And York Hudson, and pitch high pi which he lumbled. He reached second on a passed ball.

Burns again fumbled Lyons's hit and McCarthy took third. Lyons was caught stealing second.

White filed to Radford and McCarthy tied the score on the throw in. Burdock muffed Boyle's fy, Hodgon struck out. One run.

Foulz got to first on five balls. O'Brien followed with a single to left, Foulz getting to second. Orr hit safely to right, and Foulz scored the winning run for Brooklyn.

National League.

Boston O 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1

Batterus - Radbourn and Tate; Reefe and Arundel. Umpire-Mr. Valentine.

Boston Base hits, 6; errors, 1.

Washington Base hits, 5; errors, 4.

AT INDIANAPOLIS-HORNING Indianapolis 100100306-5
Pittsburg 00000010-1
Batteries Shrove and Buckley; Galvin and

Newark — Miler and Defry; Staib and Williams.

Limpire — Mr. Weight, 11; errors, 4.

Alientown — Base hits, 11; errors, 4.

Alientown — Base hits, 4; errors, 6.

AT ELMIRA -- MORNING.